

Glossary: Animal Farm, Chapter 1 (Better Version)

1. benevolent: adjective: desiring to do good for others; generous.
2. comrade: noun: 1. a close friend who shares one's chief interests. 2. a fellow member of an organization, especially of the Communist party.
3. confinement: noun: the state of being confined; imprisonment.
4. cynical: adjective: showing little or no faith in human nature; distrustful or contemptuous of others' motives.
5. ensconce: transitive verb: 1. to position (oneself) firmly or comfortably. 2. to hide or cover, as for protection.
6. laborious: adjective: requiring considerable effort or perseverance.
7. rebellion: noun: 1. an uprising or armed resistance against established authority or a government. 2. resistant defiance against what is conventional or restrictive.
8. scullery: noun: a room adjoining a kitchen, or a part of a pantry, where dishes and utensils are cleaned and stored, or preliminary food preparation is done.
9. slogan: noun: a short phrase used to summarize a principle or political message or to advertise a product; motto.
10. knacker: noun: a person who buys worn-out or old livestock and slaughters them to sell their meat or hides.